

Reimagining Government IT: Walking the Talk

The “Reimagining Government IT” study explores the state of IT modernization, challenges, and how to make things better – with

— — — — —
— — — insight from more than 300
Federal finance, IT, and procurement pros.

Tipping point:

83%

of Feds say mission success depends on IT modernization

94%

have felt a shift in momentum toward the future state of Federal IT

Top drivers:

#1

Cybersecurity EO

#2

Cloud First Policy

#3

MGT Act tied with FITARA

Walking the talk:

76%

expect IT modernization budgets to increase in FY19

Inertia remains:

Despite increases,
Feds expect FY19 IT modernization budgets to average

23%

frustratingly in line with the 80/20 status quo

Progress perceptions:

43%

of Finance leaders say wholesale change in Fed IT is happening now

VS.

27%

of IT and 24%

of procurement leaders

Workforce woes:

85% agree we “can’t have modern technology without a modern workforce,” but few feel very confident in their agency’s workforce prep:

43%

Finance

16%

IT

26%

Procurement

How do we move forward?

Capitalize on momentum

Focus on the workforce

Collaborate across functions